

NATSIFACP Support Project

Workshop – Transition to the New Aged Care Quality Standards

As you will be aware, new national Aged Care Quality Standards (Quality Standards) have been developed and apply to all providers of aged care funded by the Commonwealth Government from 1 July 2019. This includes providers of services funded through the National Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Flexible Aged Care Program (NATSIFACP).

The Commonwealth Government (Department of Health) has engaged our business, Keogh Bay People (Keogh Bay), to support your organisation in successfully completing the transition to the new Quality Standards. Further details of the NATSIFACP Support project can be found at www.NATSIFACPsupportproject.com.au.

Keogh Bay will be conducting a series of workshops across Australia in October 2019 aimed at supporting NATSIFACP service providers to meet the new Aged Care Quality Standards (the Standards) outlined in the Single Quality Framework.

Your organisation is entitled to send up to three employees to attend the workshop located closest to your main place of business or the most convenient location given transport links.
